

December 1, 2022

From: Garry Graham
Director of Creative Services
Office of University Communications, Elon University

To Whom It May Concern:

Elon University hereby grants the holder of this letter with one-time permission to print the graphics created by the Office of University Communications for specialty signs using an Elon University logo to celebrate members of the Elon Class of 2026 and their families. This letter, including all permissions it grants, expires August 16, 2023.

You may access the university's identity style guide at www.elon.edu/identity for additional guidance. If you have any questions, please contact the Office of University Communications directly at 336-278-7415 or email Holley Berry, executive assistant, at berryh@elon.edu.

Thank you,

Garry Graham
Associate Director of Design
Office of University Communications
Elon University