

COMMUNITY MUTUAL AID GROUPS

When in-person meetings are not an option or unavailable, online and remote resources such as virtual meetings can help bridge the gap and provide critical support to those dealing with alcohol and other substance use issues. The following online resources may help.

AA Online Meetings

Online AA meetings operate similarly to face-to-face meetings. All meetings are open meetings. To attend a meeting, sign up for a free Skype account. AA meetings are held daily and represented by a wide variety of members.

BIGVISION

An online community that offers support to young adults between the ages of 18 and 35 who are in recovery from alcohol and/or substance use disorders. BIGVISION provides links to daily support meetings, including interactive weekend events such as a comedy hour and sports trivia.

NA Online Meetings

Virtual NA is a globally based collaborative service resource whose primary purpose is to provide a meeting search for both online and phone line meetings of Narcotics Anonymous hosted from different countries around the world.

SMART Recovery Online (SROL)

An online community where participants interact and support each other in recovery from addictive behaviors. Features include: daily online meetings, message board, and 24/7 live chat. Registration is required to access the SMART Recovery Online message board, chat room, and online meetings.
