

UP IN DA CLUB SPORTS

elon's club sports get in the game

CAPTIONS:

- 1) Seniors Alexandra Meads, Megan Herdt, Kat Westover, Sarah Oberman, Ozelle Bower and junior Olivia Parker have some fun after rugby practice (Photo courtesy of Lane Pritchard).
- 2) Seniors Mackenzie Lewis and Molly Bauer pose for a photo with Molly's father after a field hockey match (Photo courtesy of Molly Bauer).
- 3) Elon's club fencing team practices its technical skills in Alumni Gym (Photo courtesy of Elon Club Fencing).
- 4) Elon's club equestrian team shows off its ribbons for the season (Photo courtesy of Samantha Kozin).

Elon's club sports have plenty to offer for students who are looking to get involved, active and competitive. Club rugby, field hockey, fencing and equestrian are just some of the club teams that compete during their seasons against other schools.

"The team has had several members qualify for Regional and Zone competitions," said senior member of the club equestrian team Samantha Kozin. "Riders qualify points each year to be able to attend the higher level shows, and it is a great community for equestrians on Elon's campus."

"On the team, we have opportunities to travel together and play against other schools," said senior member of women's club rugby Lane Pritchard. "I've made a lot of friends on the team, and we always have a good time together, whether we're on the field or off."

The endless opportunities that club sports have to offer created a community that is proud to wear maroon and gold and represent the Phoenix.

page by: KAITLYN FU