

Abolition as Presence in Higher Education

Events are free & open to the public. Please contact mmejia2@elon.edu with any questions about locations, parking, etc.

Sept 16

12:30 pm

Spence 200

Slave Racial Capitalism and the 19th-Century Abolitionist Movement

Snack and learn with Assistant Professor
History, Dr. Amanda Kleintop.

Sept 30

12:30 pm

Location TBA

Thinking Like an Abolitionist to End Sexual Violence in Higher Education

Snack and learn with authors Dr. Chris Linder and
Dr. Nadeeka Karunaratne

Registration Required: <https://tinyurl.com/abolition2025>

Oct 8

5:30pm

Turner Theater

One Million Experiments

Documentary film screening and talkback with the directors, Daniel Kisslinger and Damon Williams, and local organizers, Mona Evans and Amanda Wallace

Nov 4

12:30pm

Spence 200

Mandated Reporting with Emancipate North Carolina

Snack and learn with Margaux Lander, Investigator & Strategist with Emancipate NC, an organization that supports North Carolina's people as they free themselves from mass incarceration and structural racism.

Nov 12

6:30pm

McBride Gathering Space

Reynolds Lecture: White
Property, Black Trespass

Conversation with author and organizer Andrew Krinks about the religious origins and function of criminalization

Generously sponsored by the Elon Fund for Excellence; Turner Theater; Division of Inclusive Excellence; CAS Dean's Office; the Title IX Office; English; Philosophy; the Center for the Study of Religion, Culture & Society; Women's and Gender Studies; Public Health; American Studies; and the Gender and LGBTQIA Center

Thinking Like an Abolitionist to End Sexual Violence in Higher Education

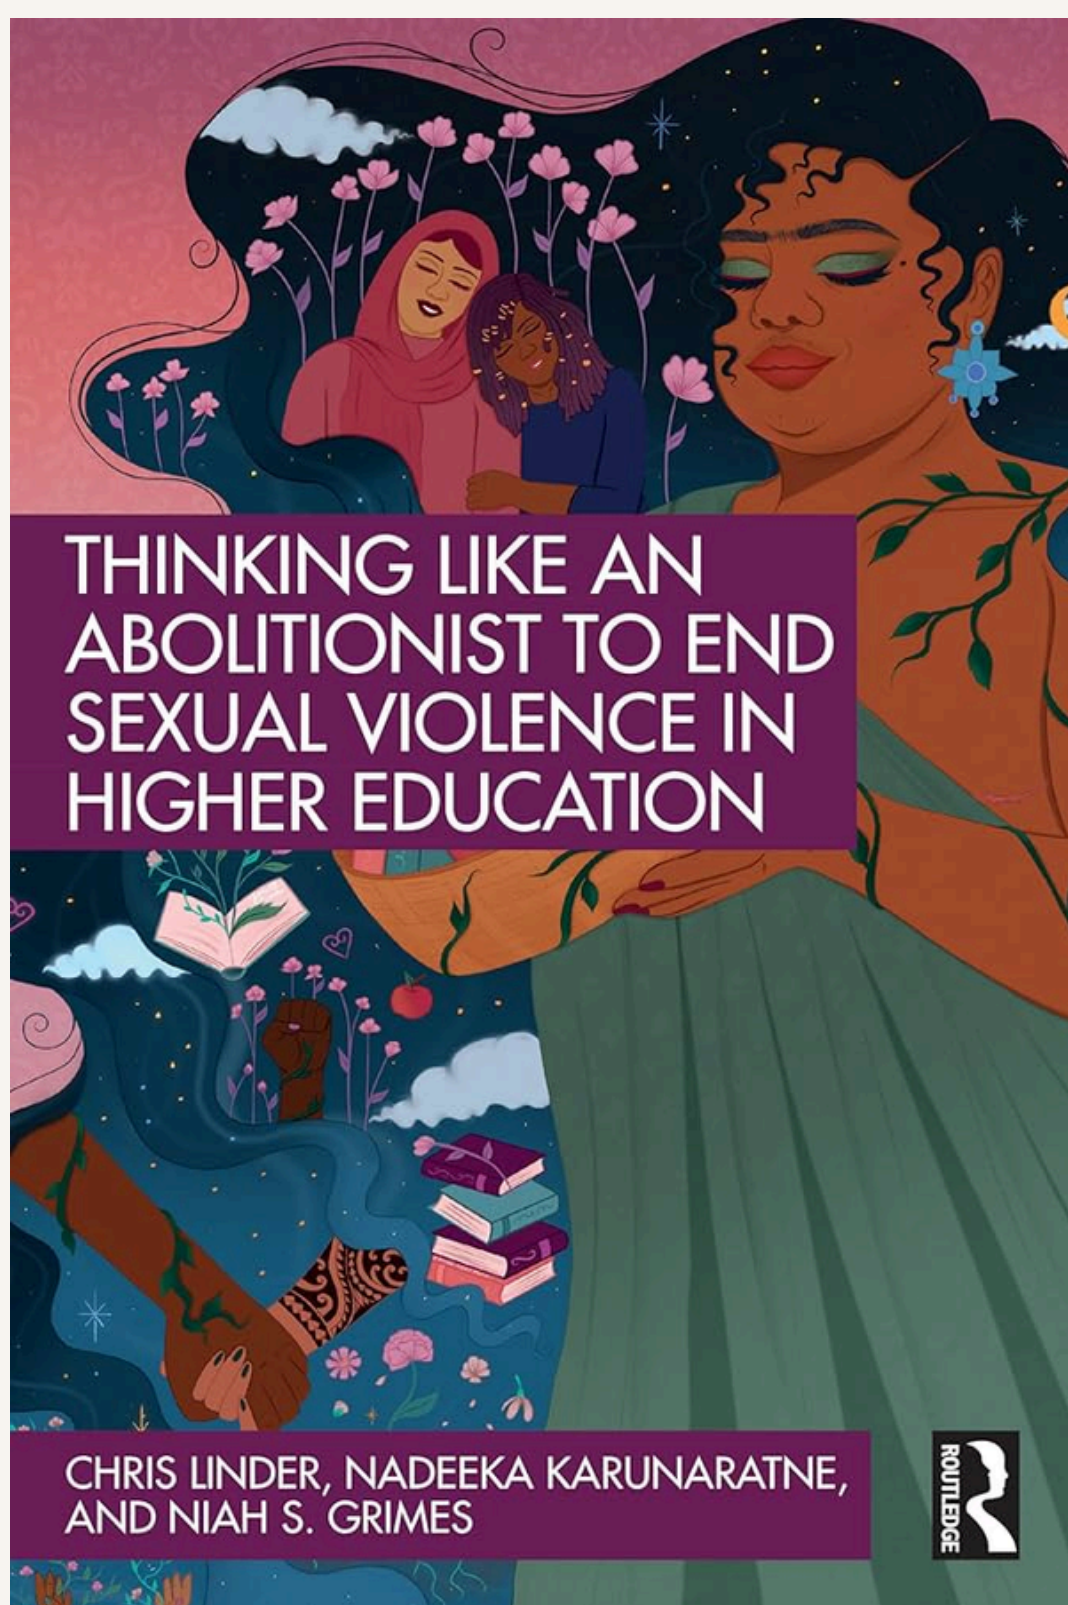

Snack and learn with authors Dr. Chris Linder and Dr. Nadeeka Karunaratne

September 30th

12:30 pm - Lakeside 214

Registration required:

<https://tinyurl.com/abolition2025>

Join us for a workshop about the history of sexual violence in higher education, navigating harm in community, and alternatives to carceral approaches to violence prevention.

Please contact mmejia2@elon.edu with any questions about location, parking, etc.

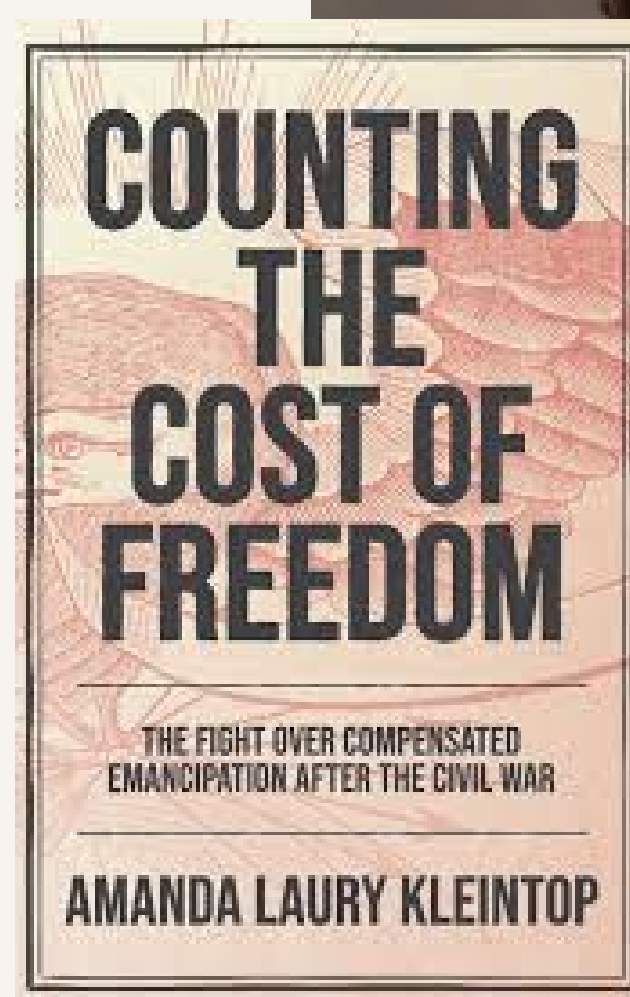

Slave Racial Capitalism and the 19th-Century Abolitionist Movement

Snack and learn with Assistant Professor of History Dr. Amanda Klientop

September 16th

12:30 pm - Spence 200

Join Dr. Kleintop
and the Philosophy
Senior Seminar on Abolition for a conversation about
the abolitionist
movement before
Jim Crow

Free & open to the public. Please contact mmejia2@elon.edu with any questions about location, parking, etc.

ONE MILLION EXPERIMENTS

Documentary Screening & Talkback October 8th

5:30pm – Turner Theater

What does safety in a world without police and prisons look like?

What does it make more possible? Built out of Interrupting Criminalization and AirGo's podcast of the same name, the half-hour film explores how we define and create wellness and reduce harm in a world without police and prisons.

After the documentary screening, join for a discussion with with the directors, Daniel Kisslinger and Damon Williams, and local organizers, Mona Evans of Benevolnce Farms and Amanda Wallace from Stop CPS.

#1MEXPERIMENTS

Free & open to the public. Please contact mmejia2@elon.edu with any questions about locations, parking, etc.

Mandated Reporting with Emancipate North Carolina

Snack and learn with Margaux Lander,
Investigator & Strategist with Emancipate NC

November 4th

12:30 pm - Spence 200

Join us for a conversation to understand the current models of mandated reporting with Emancipate NC, an organization that supports North Carolina's people as they free themselves from mass incarceration and structural racism.

Investigator and strategist Margaux Lander will share strategies to navigate the mandated reporting system while reducing harm and supporting families.

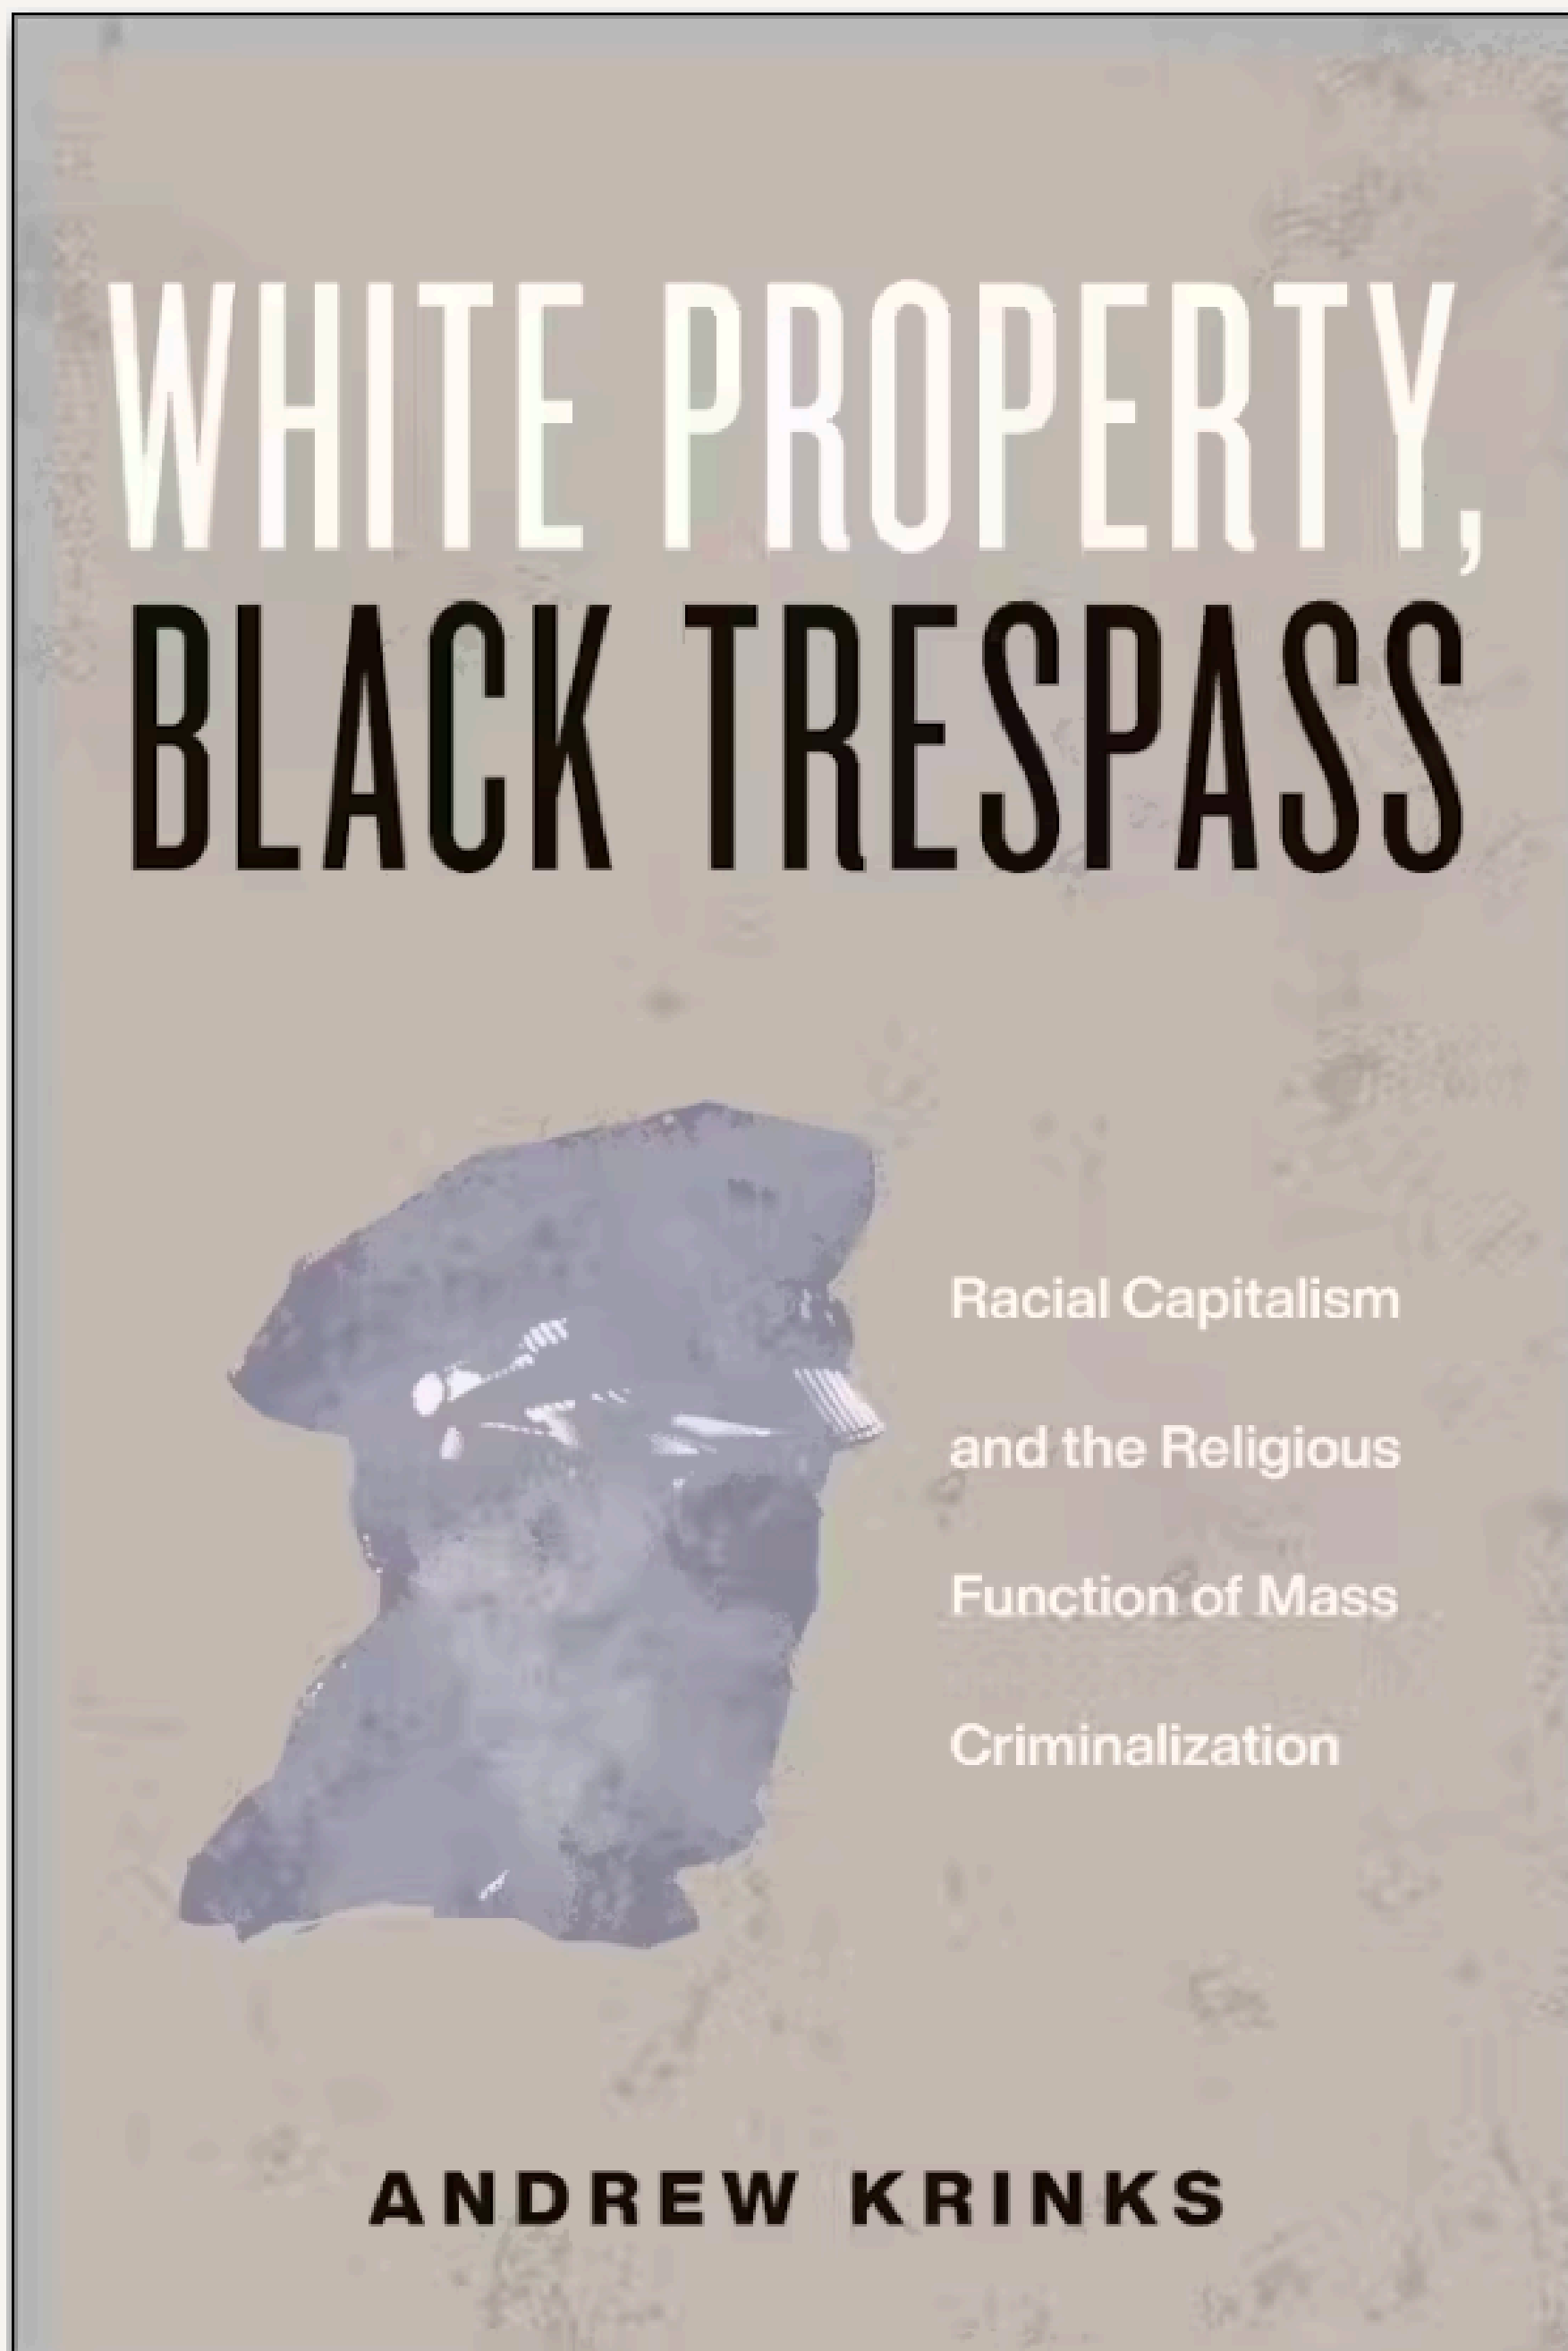

Free & open to the public. Please contact mmejia2@elon.edu with any questions about locations, parking, etc.

Reynolds Lecture: White Property, Black Trespass

November 12th

6:30pm – McBride Gathering Space

Join us for a conversation with author and organizer Andrew Krinks about the religious origins and function of mass criminalization.

Free & open to the public. Please contact mmejia2@elon.edu with any questions about locations, parking, etc.