

Service Living Learning Community Syllabus 2024-2025

LOCATION: East Building C First Floor, East Residential Neighborhood

DESCRIPTION

The Service LLC is for incoming first-year students interested in integrating into campus life through a community Service lens. The Service LLC introduces students to Elon by providing opportunities to volunteer with campus and community organizations, while providing a foundation for social justice education through discussion of important local issues. The Service LLC provides an opportunity to become familiar with the local community outside of the Elon bubble, and offers a residential opportunity to live alongside other students who are passionate about service and want to be engaged on campus.

Since the Service LLC consists of entirely first-year students, much emphasis is placed on supporting floor members in their transition to Elon's campus. Students living in the Service LLC take their COR 110: The Global Experience course together during their first semester in order to have a shared academic experience. Additionally, two student leaders work with the Service LLC floor to organize service projects and social activities on and off campus, and provide mentorship and guidance throughout the school year.

Members of the Service LLC deepen their service commitments in the spring as they delve into a long-term Service experience with a local organization of their choosing. Some Service LLC members choose to pursue their Service Experiential Learning (ELR) requirements as result of their participation in the Service LLC.

Residence Life LLC Goals

- Living Learning Communities provide students with a sense of belonging in a community of their peers united by a common interest.
- LLCs support students' intellectual, personal, and social growth by providing them with opportunities to learn in a collaborative, engaging environment that integrates their academic, social, and residential experiences.
- Living Learning Communities challenge students to apply their skills/knowledge through experiences, reflection and synthesis outside the classroom. Examples of this include intellectual discussions, trips, projects, speakers and events.
- Living Learning Communities provide opportunities for faculty, staff, and peers to mentor other students outside of the classroom, allowing them to serve as thought partners and advocates in LLC students' academic and co-curricular journeys.

REQUIREMENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

FALL SEMESTER

As a member of the Service LLC, it is an expectation that you actively participate in service opportunities and floor meetings. Service experiences are at the core of the LLC experience and provide great opportunities to get to know the area, its needs, and work with campus and community organizations to make a positive impact.

Floor members are expected to participate in six service experiences during the fall semester. These are opportunities are organized by the Service LLC student leadership team and transportation is provided. More information about when service opportunities occur in the fall semester will be provided during the early part of fall semester.

The Service LLC student leadership team organizes bi-monthly gatherings that will held on a consistent schedule throughout the fall semester determined by the availability of leaders and floor members early on during the fall semester. Typically, one of these gatherings will be a meeting to chat through logistics and upcoming events for the month. The meetings provide an opportunity to connect with student leaders, other floor members, and to discuss relevant social issues related to service opportunities and current events. The second gathering will be a social event that may involve a shared meal or fun activity on or off-campus.

The Service LLC student leadership team will also organize optional informal opportunities for the floor throughout the year including things like having coffee or lunches together, attending campus events and speakers together, movie nights, game nights, social events with other LLC's, mentor opportunities with residents of the Service LLC from previous years, and East Neighborhood events.

Kernodle Center, East Neighborhood, and Campus-Wide Events

The Kernodle Center hosts a number of events throughout the year. As a service-themed LLC, members are encouraged to explore some of these events throughout the year. The Kernodle Center advises Elon Volunteers! (EV!) which is the largest student-run service organization at Elon. There are many ways to get involved with the local community through EV!, which the Center will keep you posted on. We ask that each member of the Service LLC attend at least 1 service opportunity or event organized by the Kernodle Center in the fall (the Service LLC advisor will share the Kernodle Center event calendar at the start of the semester).

Additionally, floor members are encouraged to attend East Neighborhood and campus-wide events and programs in order to connect further with the Elon community. We ask that each member of the Service LLC attend at least 2 events sponsored by the East Neighborhood in the fall (see East calendar below).

SPRING SEMESTER

During the spring, floor members select one local organization of their choosing to volunteer with throughout the duration (20 hours) of the semester. This provides an opportunity to explore a passion area more deeply, while making a positive ongoing impact with one particular organization. Typically, Service LLC members volunteer with one of the organizations they served with during the fall semester. The Service LLC student leadership team will chat through opportunities and help match floor members with their interest for a spring service around the end of fall semester. We encourage LLC members to consider serving in small teams with fellow floor members who share similar interests at the same site. The Service LLC leadership team will act as mentors for the teams that go out and volunteer in the spring.

The Service LLC leadership team will continue to organize monthly floor meetings and fun social activities in the spring as well.

We ask that each member of the Service LLC attend at least 1 service opportunity or event organized by the Kernodle Center in the fall (the Service LLC advisor will share the Kernodle Center event calendar at the start of the semester).

We ask that each member of the Service LLC attend at least 2 events sponsored by the East Neighborhood in the fall (see East calendar below).

CALENDAR***

- Monthly meetings and gatherings will be scheduled early on during the fall and spring semester based on the availability of the Service LLC leadership team and floor members.
