

REVISITING YOUR AGREEMENT

Things to keep in mind:

What has been working well? What could be going better? How will we move forward? Is there anything we want to add?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

When challenges come up in your room, suite, or apartment, we encourage you to first try addressing them directly. We know that sometimes it helps to have support or someone to talk things through with. If that's the case, feel free to reach out to an RA, SRA, HM, or AM—they're always happy to listen or help set up a conversation with your roommate(s) or suitemate(s).

For more serious concerns, reach out to your Community Director!

We hope your year is off to a great start!

Things to discuss with your Roommates/Suitemates:

- ⇒ What is your version of clean?

- ⇒ How do you prefer to address concerns when they arise?

- ⇒ How will we divide chores for the room?

- ⇒ How will we divide chores for the common spaces?

- ⇒ How will we split the cost of shared items we buy?

- ⇒ How will we handle having different schedules? (Someone having early classes while the other can sleep in? Night owl vs. Early bird)
