

The One Hundred Twenty-Ninth
COMMENCEMENT

2019
FRIDAY, MAY 24

ELON UNIVERSITY

THE ALMA MATER

Sons of Elon, daughters too,
Bring their praise and homage true.
In thy keeping there will be
Words and deeds to honor thee.
Hearken to the song they're singing,
And the loyalty they're bringing.
Alma Mater, they will cherish thee;
Alma Mater, they will cherish thee.

Proud, the oak trees on thy hill
Offer shade and shadow still
Green the fields around thee lie;
Blue the Carolina sky.
Stately rise thy halls of learning,
Toward their portals we are turning.
Alma Mater, we will cherish thee;
Alma Mater, we will cherish thee.

Elon, ever lead us on
To a bright and happy dawn;
Teach us still to love and pray,
Guide us to a nobler day.
Joyous music lies before us,
Memories to swell the chorus.
Alma Mater, we will cherish thee;
Alma Mater, we will cherish thee.

Tune: "Gaudeamus Igitur"

Lyrics: William David Ellis

THE OFFICE OF ALUMNI ENGAGEMENT

The Office of Alumni Engagement welcomes Elon's 2019 graduates to the ranks of more than 30,000 living undergraduate and graduate alumni. The Office of Alumni Engagement provides programming for alumni in hopes that they will become engaged as partners, advocates and investors with Elon. For more information about programming that will be offered to you as a recent graduate please visit www.elon.edu/alumni.

ABOUT THE ACADEMIC SYMBOLS

THE ELON UNIVERSITY MACE

The mace is an ancient symbol of authority. The Elon University mace, given in memory of Elon professor Alonzo L. Hook by the estate of E.M. Martin, is carried in academic procession by a senior member of the faculty. At today's ceremonies, the Elon mace is carried by Donna Van Bodegraven, David J. Powell, and Susan L. Manning. The Elon mace, approximately 40 inches in length, was handcrafted in Portugal of sterling silver and gilding and incorporates many symbols. The shaft of the Elon mace is ornamented with bands of oak leaves and has four sections that represent four years of study. An acorn, symbolizing the seed of learning, is carved at the base of the shaft. The head of the Elon mace is a six-sided replica of Elon's colonnades, complete with open arches and brickwork, which signify strength and stability. The Elon mace is crowned with the official seal of the university.

THE ELON UNIVERSITY STAFFS

The ceremonial staffs carried by faculty marshals are traditional symbols of authority. Elon's staffs were crafted by James L. Barbour, professor emeritus of economics, using wood from an Elon oak that fell during a 2000 storm.

THE ELON UNIVERSITY GONFALONS

The Elon University gonfalons are modeled on processional banners that originated in the medieval states of Italy. Four gonfalons represent the undergraduate schools that comprise Elon University: Elon College, the College of Arts and Sciences; Martha and Spencer Love School of Business; School of Communications; and School of Education.

INTERNATIONAL FLAGS

The flags at the stage represent the native countries of members of the Class of 2019.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The academic regalia worn by modern college and university faculty and students originated in medieval European universities and has undergone little modification since the 16th century. As in the Middle Ages, modern academic regalia signifies the wearer's academic accomplishment and consists of a gown or robe, head covering, and hood. The robe denotes the wearer's level of education, with the baccalaureate gown being of simple design with full sleeves. The master's gown is similar to the baccalaureate gown except that it has a closed or glove sleeve that is open at the wrist. The doctoral gown has velvet panels down the front and velvet chevrons on large bell-shaped sleeves. While most gowns are black, some institutions, like Elon, choose robes in the school colors.

The head covering most commonly associated with academic regalia is the mortarboard decorated with a tassel. Many who hold the doctorate wear a velvet Tudor cap.

It is the hood that adds meaning to academic regalia. Changed little since the Middle Ages, the hood falls from the shoulders down the back of the gown in a display of color. A hood is usually black and edged in colored velvet denoting the disciplines of the wearer's degree. The college or university awarding the degree is indicated by the colors of the silk lining.

In 1895, an Intercollegiate Code was adopted to specify design and appropriate colors for various degrees. The following colors identify the disciplines indicated.

WHITE	Arts, letters, and humanities
DRAB	Business
RUST	Economics
LIGHT BLUE	Education
BROWN	Fine Arts
SAGE GREEN	Health Sciences
CRIMSON	Journalism and communications
PURPLE	Laws
LEMON	Library Science
PINK	Music
DARK BLUE	Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW	Science
CITRON	Social Sciences
SCARLET	Theology
