REGISTRATION:

Summer 2025 registration opens February 27th at 12:45 p.m. Online registration for summer courses for all students ends on May 15th. To change a course after May 15th, email Registrar Malia Brown at mjones104@elon.edu. Faculty advisor approval in OnTrack is not required for summer session registration.

Flex One students must register using terms “Law: Flex Summer I 2025” or “Law: Flex Summer II 2025.”

The drop/add deadlines are:

Summer Session I: Tuesday, June 17, 2025, 4:00 p.m.

Summer Session II: Tuesday, July 22, 2025, 4:00 p.m.

There are no refunds after these dates.

Students may take up to two courses in Summer Session II, for up to three courses in total.

ABA RULE ON ONLINE COURSES:

To complete the J.D. degree in four years, Flex Program students will need to take some Summer Session courses. The ABA rules allow a law school to grant a student up to one-third of the credit hours required for the J.D. degree via distance education courses. Thus any credits taken in online courses over the 28 online credit hours allowed will not count toward graduation. It is each student’s obligation to ensure they do not exceed the allowed number of online credits.

TUITION:

Tuition for Summer Session is charged per credit hour, at $1,581 per credit hour. Students registered for the Law School Summer Sessions will receive a billing statement from the University. Payment in full or payment arrangements (e.g., confirmed financial aid) must be made by the payment due date on the billing statement to avoid the cancellation of courses.

FINANCIAL AID:

Students enrolled for at least two credit hours in either Summer Session are eligible to apply for financial aid for that session. The financial aid form and budget amounts are attached to this registration memorandum and available outside the Registrar’s office. For financial aid questions, contact Lynette Lorenzetti, lorenzet@elon.edu, (336) 278-7640.

SUMMER SESSION I

Commercial Law: Secured Transactions, Dean Woodlief, 3 credits LAW 6710OL

This course covers the law of secured transactions, focusing on Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Each week, students are assigned textbook chapters to read and problems to work, and Dean Woodlief posts recorded lectures and review problems online. Students listen to the weekly lectures, do the course reading, and work on the weekly problems on their own schedule, to complete by the weekly deadlines. There are online chat forums and office hours each week, for students to connect with Dean Woodlief and ask any questions they may have about the material for the week. Dean Woodlief is available other times during the week by appointment. Regular, weekly participation is an important part of the learning process in this course and is also a proxy for attendance. A component of the grade measures participation (e.g., logging in and watching lectures, working textbook problems, answering review questions online, and submitting assignments). Students' participation is monitored through Moodle and students' submissions. Lack of consistent and timely participation in the course results in a reduced grade, per the syllabus. There are two quizzes and a final exam. The quizzes are submitted through Moodle, and the final exam is via ExamSoft.

final exam: July 19, open 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

textbook: Whaley, McJohn, Problems and Materials on Secured Transactions, 10th ed. preferred (11th ed. or 12th ed. allowed) (Aspen Publishing). 978-1454886068

SUMMER SESSION II

Commercial Law: Sales, Professor Levine, 2 credits LAW 6700OL

This course is a study of the law of contracts for the sale of goods. The course focuses on Article 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Students listen to weekly lectures, do the course reading, and work on weekly assignments on their own schedule, to complete by the weekly deadline.

final exam: August 18, open 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

textbook: Lewis & Monserud, Sales (Carolina Academic Press 2022). 978-1531022068

Mastering Legal Analysis (MLA), OAS faculty, 2 credits LAW6830OL

This course helps students improve their ability to de-construct legal rules, to explain and evaluate the significance of facts, to thoroughly support conclusions of law, and to effectively organize content. These skills are critical in applying law to the hypothetical questions typical of both law school and bar exams. The hands-on learning methodology used in the course includes in-class analytical and writing work in both individual and group settings.

Professional Responsibility, Dean Woodlief, 2 credits

LAW 6820OL

This course is a study of the professional obligations of attorneys imposed both by regulation and the noble traditions of the legal profession. The course uses hypothetical fact situations and problems faced by attorneys to reinforce the model rules and to develop a commitment to ethical decision-making in students. Each week, students read assigned textbook chapters and work problems, and Dean Woodlief posts recorded weekly lectures and review problems online. Online chat forums and office hours allow students to connect with Dean Woodlief and ask questions. He is available other times during the week by appointment. Regular, weekly participation is an important part of the learning process in this course and is also a proxy for attendance. A component of the grade measures participation (e.g., logging in and watching lectures, working textbook problems, answering review questions online, and submitting assignments). Students' participation is monitored through Moodle and students' submissions. Lack of consistent and timely participation in the course will result in a reduced grade in the course, per the syllabus. There are one or two quizzes, and a final exam. The quizzes are submitted through Moodle, and the final exam is via ExamSoft. Students who do not take Professional Responsibility during Summer Session II must take it during the regular trimester in which it is offered.

final exam: August 19, open 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

textbook: Martyn, Fox, Traversing the Ethical Minefield: Problems, Law, and Professional Responsibility, 4th ed. preferred (5th ed. allowed) (Wolters Kluwer 2018).
